Where: Tabard Theatre (formerly Theatre on San Pedro Square), 29 N. San Pedro Street, San Jose, CA 95110 (Parking is validated for most performances at the San Pedro Garage directly across the street)

Why: Once again, Will Durst and his merry band of pranksters bring their end-of-the-year comedy extravaganza to Tabard Theatre, to salve the soul via a hilarious New Year’s celebration where humor and parking abound.

The 26th Annual Big Fat Year End Kiss Off Comedy Show XXVI features nationally known political satirist Will Durst, Bay Area funny comedy human Johnny Steele, the improvisational wizardry of Debi Durst and Michael Bossier, the comedic stylings of Mari Magaloni, and the ever youthful pizzazz of Arthur Gaus.

The show is comprised of standup comedy, improvisation and loosely written sketches based on the major news stories of 2018, and there’s a cornucopia of delights to choose from. The cast promises to mock and scoff and taunt with taste and make audiences laugh out loud on purpose.

Shows at 6 p.m. and 9 p.m. Tickets to the 9 p.m. show will include a complimentary champagne toast and a do-it-yourself balloon drop.

Tabard Theatre (formerly Theatre on San Pedro Square) — The Destination for Arts Discovery — is located in the heart of historic San Pedro Square in downtown San Jose amid a bustling restaurant district. This intimate and unique venue brings a touch of Manhattan to the South Bay with its rustic yet edgy feel. Old brick walls, plush leather seats, antique wood plank floors, sweeping red velvet drapes and a 35-foot mahogany bar create a casual cabaret atmosphere. The full bar also offers a variety of food choices that may be enjoyed while watching the show.
