Who: The Tabard Theatre Company presents

What: WILL DURST - BoomeRaging: From LSD to OMG

When: Saturday, May 25, 2019 at 8 p.m.

Where: Tabard Theatre (formerly Theatre on San Pedro Square), 29 N. San Pedro Street, San Jose, CA 95110 (Parking is validated for most performances at the San Pedro Garage directly across the street)

Why: The man the New York Times calls “quite possibly, the best political comedian working in the country today,” Will Durst, is thrilled to bring his one-man show to the intimate Tabard Theatre. “BoomeRaging: From LSD to OMG” is an uproarious tribute to the joys, achievements, frustrations, and looming doom of the Baby Boom Generation. Aply assisted by a genially acerbic wit and trusty overhead projector, Durst explores the Boomer revolutions, evolutions, and still-vibrant role in today’s youth-obsessed society (“which we invented, for crum’s sake”). In this rollicking monologue, Durst explains why his chronologically gifted brothers and sisters should refuse to grow old in the face of gravity, no matter how many times they forget their password retrieval question. It’s what happens when acid flashbacks meet dementia. A celebration of the maturation of the Boomer Nation: culminating in an extra, added special treat - the Meaning of Life.

Tabard Theatre (formerly Theatre on San Pedro Square) — The Destination for Arts Discovery — is located in the heart of historic San Pedro Square in downtown San Jose amid a bustling restaurant district. This intimate and unique venue brings a touch of Manhattan to the South Bay with its rustic yet edgy feel. Old brick walls, plush leather seats, antique wood plank floors, sweeping red velvet drapes and a 35-foot mahogany bar create a casual cabaret atmosphere. The full bar also offers a variety of food choices that may be enjoyed while watching the show.
